Children and Youth Programs

ServeNow works with disadvantaged children, orphans as well as street children in centers located in some of the major slums in India. In some locations schools from Kindergarten to Grade 4 are in operation. In other areas children are taught to read and write, as well as taught life values through teaching, drama and music. Through special summer programs the children are taught lessons from the Bible. ServeNow also works with children in Ukraine, Nepal and Uganda, through training programs, summer camps and school education. ServeNow trains young women in a trade, to void them being drawn into trafficking. ServeNow operated several tailoring schools as well as cosmetology schools and handicraft schools.

One of the major projects of ServeNow is to assist local congregations in remote areas and in the slums, providing such churches with basic Scriptures. Pastors are also trained in major themes of church teaching. ServeNow provides training materials for each member in these congregations on a long term basis. Individual training programs are also conducted in strategic locations in each country.

Humanitarian Programs including containers

In areas where it gets freezing cold and children and elderly have no winter coverings, we provide winter clothing (currently to approximately 4,000 people), in remote villages and in slums. ServeNow provides day medical camps, with national physicians and nurses, seeing approximately 150 patients a day. These camps take place almost every week in a different location. In the summer when drinking water is scarce, such is provided for a month for individual families. ServeNow also provides container loads of humanitarian aid including medical equipment, clothing and furniture to the war-torn areas of Ukraine. ServeNow short term teams provide additional needed staffing for a variety of humanitarian and other ministry programs. It also allows individuals to have a life changing experience by spending two weeks in international settings, working alongside nationals in projects like providing winter clothing in areas where many of the recipients otherwise may freeze to death or become gravely ill. Team members may also assist national doctors and nurses in medical camps as well as providing free drinking water in areas where no water is available. Some other areas involve taking part in summer camps for orphans, the physically challenged and refugee children.

Part 1, Line 32b

ServeNow has chosen to partner with The Salvation Army Humanitarian Aid in Sweden to fulfill our mission statement around the world.

"Serving people in need by caring for orphans, widows, underprivileged children and youth by providing humanitarian assistance where needed." The Salvation Army Humanitarian Aid receives medical, handicap, and personal equipment from hospitals, community centers and companies. We have written agreements with counties, communities and private companies regarding their equipment. When we receive different items, the hospital establishes the price for each piece of equipment. Depending on its prior use, we discount those prices up to 40%. There are stringent rules regarding comfort, standard and durability, both from EU and Swedish authorities. All items received and then passed on to ServeNow are cleaned, renovated and in full working condition. Medical machines, etc., are checked by technicians from the donating hospital. As an extra control, we value each major piece of equipment , with matching age, from other groups like Ebay.

Effective February 1, 2016, MediaServe joined forces with ServeNow as a controlled affiliate organization. The excess of the fair value of assets received over liabilities of MediaServe assumed by ServeNow are reflected as a contribution for the year ended March 31, 2016.

MediaServe is a British charity that exists to advance the Kingdom of God by producing and providing innovative Christian literature and other media materials. Presently, MediaServe works in 45 languages around the world, providing complete Bibles, New Testaments, and evangelistic and discipleship materials.

Ministry Coordination

ServeNow maintains operational offices in several locations in India, Nepal, Ukraine, United Kingdom, and Sweden, as well as a coordination office in Uganda. These offices coordinate the projects in each of their respective areas. ServeNow provides ministry and project support for these offices as part of its program services. This support allows the national leaders to hire competent national staff which, thereby, also supports the local community in these countries.

Part VI, Line 11b. Describe the process used by the organization to review this Form 990.

Management sends the draft 990 report to the entire board of directors by email at least two weeks in advance of its filing, requesting their review and comments. Directors "reply to all" by email, so the whole board and top management can track the discussion and any concerns or corrections.

Part VI, Line 12c. Describe how the organization monitors and enforces compliance with the conflict of interest policy.

At the annual board meeting, the board explicitly reviews any potential conflicts of interest, including requiring each director to report his or her outside organizational involvements. Any relevant conflicts of interest must be approved by the board. Directors sign a conflict of interest statement on an annual basis.

Part VI, Line 15a. Describe the process for determining compensation of the CEO and top management including a review and approval by independent persons, comparability data and contemporaneous substantiation of the deliberation and decision.

On an annual basis the board of directors, without the President present, conducts a review of comparable organizations' executive compensation, discusses its findings, determines by board vote the compensation for the President for the coming year, and records their decision in the board meeting minutes. An annual review of the President is done by the board of directors at the annual meeting also.

Part VI, Line 19. Describe how the organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public.

The organization makes such documents available upon request but only as approved at the discretion of the President.

Part XI, Line 9. Other changes in net assets or fund balances

Foreign Currency Translation $16,158

All field offices have identified the US dollar as their reporting currency, which is different from their functional currency. The financial statements of these locations are translated to US dollars using year end rates of exchange for all assets and liabilities, and average rates of exchange for the year for revenues and expenses. The foreign currency translation adjustment is included on the audited consolidated statement of activities.
